

Shamshad Shah

I am a specialist dietician and have worked in the NHS for over 25 years. I currently work as a Freelance Dietician.

I have experience of managing a multidisciplinary project working with migrant communities. I have previous experience in chairing on a voluntary sector board.

I Feel I can offer a wealth of skills and expertise to help change lives in the local communities who access Riverside Community Health Project.