

Catherine Mills

I live in the West End of Newcastle and am passionate about the area in which we live, I feel it is important that a local person represents the community on the board to ensure sure that the communities needs are met.

As well as being a Trustee my family and I use Riverside services and have done for a number of years. I am a member of the women's group.