

Jo Whaley

Jo is the Chair of Riverside Community Health Project. She has lived in the East End of Newcastle for 14 years. She is passionate about equality and diversity and her career focuses on health equality. She is a Public Engagement Manager in NHS England, working in learning disability. Until recently she worked in the voluntary and community sector, linking policy makers and commissioners with charities in health and social care. She has been on the Management Committee since 2010 and Chair since 2014.