

Riverside Playgroup

Riverside Playgroup is offering places to children aged 2-4 years in its newly refurbished play facility in September 2017

All three and four year old children are entitled to 15 hours free childcare per week and if parents are working they may be entitled to 30 hours free from September 2017. Some two year olds are entitled to 15 hours free childcare, depending on household income.

From September the Playgroup will be open longer hours: weekdays during school term time from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Children who come to the Playgroup are encouraged to meet their full potential through play and exploration and they learn skills to get ready for school. So that positive relationships with both children and their parents can be built each child has their own key worker.

To book a place parents should discuss their requirements and entitlements with Playgroup staff by calling in to the Carnegie Building, telephoning or email.
